In Denmark and Norway, "hygge" is generally used as an example for a general state of lovely cosiness. In Sweden, the word that is hard to translate literally is 'Fika'. 'To Fika' is a good old Swedish word that basically means to 'meet up, have a coffee and a chit-chat'. We Scandinavians love nothing more than to meet up for a Fika.

How to hygge | Scandinavian Butik

The Swedish concept of fika (fee-kah) means taking a little break from the daily grind to sit down, connect with someone and perhaps have a cup of coffee and something sweet. Hygge is a Norwegian word embraced by the Danes, and the concept of Hygge is usually associated with the latter - in Norway it is often called 'kos'.
